

UNITED STATES BANKRUPTCY COURT FOR THE DISTRICT OF ALASKA

In the Matter of

DELEGATION OF MINISTERIAL AUTHORITY
TO SIGN DISCHARGE OF DEBTOR ORDERS
IN CHAPTER 7 AND ORDERS FOR PAYMENT OF DIVIDENDS IN CHAPTER 7 AND CHAPTER 13

88-002
O R D E R

The signing of Discharge of Debtor orders appears to be mainly a ministerial task, probably more efficiently and diligently reviewed by the Clerk's Office than this Court. The Estate Administrator reviews dividend requests, and the Court rarely has time to undertake the calculations itself before signing Orders for Payment of Dividends. The Court will remain available to sign orders which the staff thinks need judicial scrutiny, but feels these orders can be competently handled by the staff. Therefor,

IT IS ORDERED, pursuant to L.B.R. 28, the Clerk, the Chief Deputy Clerk, the Estate Administrator, and such deputies as the Clerk may designate are authorized to sign Orders for Discharge of Debtor and Orders for Payment of Dividends in Chapter 7 and Chapter 13 cases, except where any disbursement to any one recipient exceeds $5,000.00.

DATED: February 5, 1988.

18 | 2/9/88

HERBERT A. ROSS
U.S. Bankruptcy Judge